J238 .2

Using information collected in sociological study and “map my district” action “Otium” has organized several events in the library to involve local citizens in the project. All events are based on the interests and needs of residents, we have collected during the study. Among them are film-screening, lecture on city budgeting, table games for kids, workshop on furniture refinishing etc.

Kids playing table game

Workshop on furniture refinishing

Residents of Rusanivka district in the library