

Collecting ideas from the users

Building workshop

Children workshop

Ideas collected from the users

Gârleanu Sitting Room

A research studio operated in the library for two weeks. The team collected proposals from the users and organized an exhibition about the neighbourhood and an urban education workshop.

The structure was built with the help of volunteers from the library's network, students and a local resident.

One week later, the "Sitting Room" was opened with an event for children, organized by the library.

Building workshop

Gârleanu Sitting Room - public equipment for the community