The intervention reclaims two disfigured areas, the Plaza del Reloj and the Plaza del Mercado and it reestablishes its use as a meeting and sheltering space joined by a street way.

paving system:

Steel rods of two different sizes that bend depending on the width of the street. Between them, granite blocks embedded into black concrete, their density is higher closer to the facades.