

At the centre of the project, on the « place des Basques », a huge wooden deck lets you walk over sea spray, on a blue concrete which merges with the sea. We sit down on it and the children cross it over surrounded water mist.

