

Project: a meeting point that the neighbourhood never had. A space to weave social networks that may regenerate its social fabric. A biodiverse garden as a metaphor of the multicultural environment of Orriols.

Historic walls and pavements recovered after the intervention

Low hydric consume Mediterranean species. Sustainable drainage system.

Playing area. Height difference as an opportunity to enjoy.

Different scales for different social relationships.