

The memorial positions itself between the changing sky and the stable forest floor.

Anchored in the soil on a perfect horizontal plane, the ring of stones reveals the natural slope of the forest to become a bench on one side.

It offers a moment of calmness and contemplation.

The memorial is discovered deep inside the forest. It is mute, beyond words.