The site before the transformation

A: View of the site before transformation
B: Following the death of Count Mansfeld and despite its magnificence, the property fell into ruin
C: Stones were stocked on site after archeological excavations

Participation workshops

During participation workshops a plethora of ideas and reflections were communicated to the City of Luxembourg.

Some of them have already been realized:
- public toilet
- drinking fountain
- pétanque track
- fence with historical timeline

Transformation between May and July 2017

© Charles Soubry
© Shaaf Milani-Nia
© Patrick Müller
© Christophe Weber