

Nørreport Station

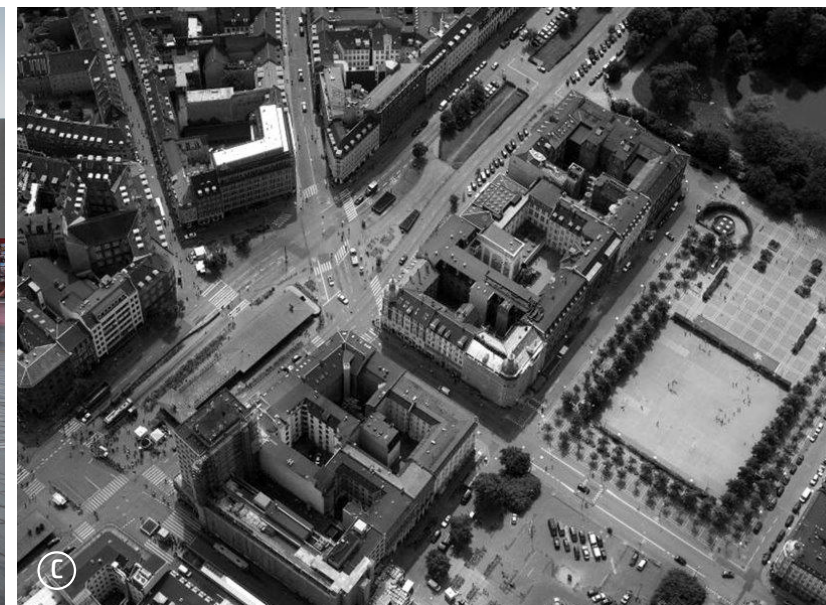

Transformation of station and the surrounding urban space

A - PHOTO: OLE MALLING & GOTTLIEB PALUDAN ARCHITECTS. B - PHOTO: JENS M. LINDHE & GOTTLIEB PALUDAN ARCHITECTS. C - NØRREPORT STATION BEFORE THE TRANSFORMATION

Nørreport Station is Denmark's busiest transport hub and following the transformation, it is characterized as an urban space with firm focus on the needs of cyclists and pedestrians.

The redesign and redevelopment of Nørreport Station is the outcome of the collaborative efforts of Gottlieb Paludan Architects and COBE. Urban Life, passenger flow, transparency and accessibility are key values of the project.

CLIENT	THE CITY OF COPENHAGEN AND DANISH STATE RAILWAYS
CONSTR. YEAR	2015
COST	EUR 13,5 MID.
SIZE	10,000 M ²
COLLABORATORS	SWECO (FORMER GRONTMIJ), BARTENBACH
CONTRACT	GENERAL CONTRACT