Recyclab is a 400m² recycling and eco-construction hub comprising facilities for storing and reusing of locally salvaged materials, in order to transform them into elements for self-building and ecological retrofitting. The hub hosts co-working workshops for makers and designers and a participative workshop open to residents for repairing and DIY sessions.

- 100 citizen are involved
- 200t CO₂ reduction /year
- 12 to 14 new green jobs in recycling,
- eco-construction, eco-design and local economy cooperation, sharing, participation
- 110t/year of urban waste recycled and reused
- 100 users – education, learning, dissemination of ecological practices

Repair cafe participatory workshop car mobike demonstration reuse market debates upcycling workshop construction workshop street facade professional workshop street appropriation for civic use terrasse view from the street view from the stade