

R-URBAN // RECYCLAB

RECYCLING AND ECOCONSTRUCTION HUB

Recyclab is a 400m2 recycling and eco-construction hub comprising facilities for storing and reusing of locally salvaged materials, in order to transform them into elements for self-building and ecological retrofitting. The hub hosts co-working workshops for makers and designers and a participative workshop open to residents for repairing and DIY sessions.

- 100 citizen are involved
- 200t C02 reduction /year
- 12 to 14 new green jobs in recycling ,
- eco-construction , eco-design and local economy cooperation, sharing, participation
- 110t/ year of urban waste recycled and reused
- 100 users – education, learning, dissemination of ecological practices

Repair cafe

participatory workshop

cargobike demonstration

reuse market

debates

upcycling workshop

construction workshop

street facade

professional workshop

street appropriation for civic use terrasse

view from the street

view from the stade