

The Heavenly Hundred Garden is the first public space in Kyiv, there everybody can feel himself as a part of social life in the city. There are hold different public events, such as open-air parties, interactive games and plein airs for children, performances of musical bands. Events are held under different topics with appropriate decorations.