

PCBL Skärholmen "Runes plan"

THE ACTION

PATICIPATION

One of the objectives of the Puckelboll pitch has been to serve as a catalyst for dialogue and meetings between people. Skärholmen Municipality has used the Puckelboll pitch as a tool to enhance the park's status and attractiveness which has been successful. The long term effects is to increase the pride among the residents and an to stimulate frequency of visits in the area.

The project has been anchored in public several times and young people in the area have worked and are still working with the City of Stockholm and Johan Ferner Ström on a variety of projects associated with the venture. The project has also attracted considerable media attention both locally, regionally, nationally and internationally.

CONDITIONS

Take any type of ball, compose teams, for example three or five or seven on each side, mixed teams or not. Make your own rules, maybe extras for beautiful goals, play the football rules.... or just dance. One thing is for sure, you will need guts, humor, and an open mind, and you will experience a whole new way of playing, The field is suitable for children between 3 and 75. No huligans, no bribery scandals, -just fun!
