The Former Jewish Ghetto

“Imago Urbis” of the Former Jewish Ghetto of Bologna = Hand
Hand => Artisan / Crafts Vocation rooted in time in this area
But also: A Jewish symbol (the hand of five) Five Books of the Torah

The Ghetto of Bologna was the urban area of the city destined to contain the Jewish community, according to the Bolla cum nimiris absurdum issued by Pope Paul IV on July 14, 1555. This area, top view, has the “Forma Urbis” of a hand that becomes the symbol of his artisan vocation.