

The visible result

a lively friendly piazza, free of vandalization and abusive parking and turns to be in the center of life of Collelungo Sabino's people. It is adaptably changeable by the locals respecting the changing demands of use, if as meeting point or for celebrations.

The invisible result

the great experience gained by all participants showing that with limited resources and a diverse group it is possible to change a place to the better.

If the locals reclaim their public spaces and fill it with life and ideas, these places can truthfully be called „belli“.
