The children’s playground for kids of different ages is strategically situated, given its relative position to neighbourhood schools and day care centres, and also for urban furniture, which qualifies both the leisure and circulation areas.